SUBJECT: Lyle STUART

Reference is made to your memorandum dated 1 June 1964, in which you provided this office with several questions you wished to have passed to Miss Viola June COBB regarding Lyle STUART. There follows the information provided by Miss COBB in answer to your inquiry:

1. Regarding Lyle STUART, Juan Jose AREVALO, and Antikomunismo en America Latina:

Early in the spring of 1962, in Mexico, AREVALO told me that STUART was prodding him about getting another of his books translated, to take advantage of the publicity around The Shark and the Sardines. I was already far beyond speaking terms with STUART and therefore declined to have anything further to do with him. About three months later, AREVALO told me that STUART was going to publish Antikomunismo en America Latina and that a young American student, married to a Mexican, Angela delli SANTE ARROCHA (who had written Arevalo, pensador contemporaneo, published by Costa Amic, 1962, financed by his Radical Revolucionario de El Salvador) was doing the translation into English. Early in 1963, AREVALO told me that the translation hadn't been satisfactory and therefore STUART had obtained a re-translation, by Charleton BEALS.

When STUART was here in Mexico in June, he told Dr. OSEGUEDA that he was very happy about the way the book was selling.

Inasmuch as STUART has paid AREVALO only 10 per cent of moneys received by STUART on the Shark and the Sardines sales (in contrast with some book contracts in which the author receives 10 per cent of the money represented by number of copies sold multiplied by the retail sales price) I would assume he is no more generous with Antikomunismo.

I know of no affiliations of STUART with foreign political parties of government. His attempts to get close to Fidel CASTRO in 1960 were motivated by a desire to exploit the journalistic advantages of an interview. His original interest in The Shark and the Sardines was apparently motivated by money-making interests and by the hope that he might spark a sensation - exactly what he did manage to do with his outrageous advertising. He seemed to calculate that there might be libel suits possible against the firms and the newspapers he could provoke to attack him.

The original contract of AREVALO with STUART was superseded by another in November of 1961, granting STUART certain rights with regard to other foreign language editions of The Shark and the Sardines and, I believe, establishing that STUART should have first option on other AREVALO books translated into English.

Information about STUART's dealings with AREVALO and whatever others, could be obtained (with guile) from Eileen BRANT, who was his editor at the time of the first contact with AREVALO. She subsequently broke with him because of deep and bitter resentment against him, then returned not too long ago to collaborate with him. She is his wife's sister. She is certainly working with him now only because he finally offered her a little better pay. For her to have changed her mind about him would be almost impossible, I believe, in view of the long history of incidents that had brought her to have contempt for him, at the time I knew her in 1961. She knows his operation inside-out. In order to get information from her, it would be absolutely necessary to approach her from some angle that would give no hint of government investigation. She is very gregarious. She is a fortyish medium-attractive, lonely, New York single woman (unless her status has changed since I knew her). If contacted by somebody she would assume to be a writer, and who would be a bit friendly with her and see her off-hours, she would probably talk freely about STUART. But she is quite clever and rather worldly in some respects, so that must be kept in mind in case she is contacted. SHE HAS A VERY DEEP AND LONGTIME NEGATIVE ATTITUDE TOWARD ALL GOVERNMENT AGENCIES INVOLVED IN INVESTIGATION. She was active in liberal activities in Chicago, and if I remember correctly, although she is certainly not communist, she considered herself a little jeopardised by the Mc Carthy period.

Angela Delli SANTE-ARROCHE could also be contacted, of course.

SECRET

2. Regarding Lyle STUART, Dr. Raul OSEGUEDA, Bartolome COSTA Amic, and Mario MONTEFORTE Toledo:

Dr. OSEGUEDA apparently has had a secret longing to get something of his own printed in English. He seized upon the opportunity of commenting BEALS' introduction to Antikomunismo in order to write to STUART this spring. STUART wrote very cordially back to OSEGUEDA, hoping to meet him on a trip to Mexico in June. When OSEGUEDA confessed to me his correspondence with STUART, he sought to make me see it as an attempt to speak with STUART about the royalties STUART has never paid me.

When Dr. OSEGUEDA finally did see STUART here in Mexico during the book congress in June, he only very timidly and very, very briefly touched upon the royalty problem, and indeed went to a great deal of trouble to serve STUART by introducing him to COSTA Amic and to Mario MONTEFORTE Toledo. (STUART had expressed interest in getting in touch with some publishers and writers.) OSEGUEDA bustled about, taking OSEGUEDA and MONTEFORTE Toledo to lunch with STUART, even managed to get the MONTEFORTE Toledos to invite STUART to dinner at their apartment. There were tentative discussions of collaborating in the distribution of COSTA Amic books in the United States and of publishing some book of MONTEFORTE Toledo's.

However, both COSTA Amic and the MONTEFORTE Toledos told me that they found STUART offensively vulgar and were not at all enthusiastic about having anything to do with him.

Two weeks ago, OSEGUEDA sketched the outline of a book (contemporary history of U.S. and Latin American relations) he hopes STUART will want to publish, and sent the outline up to him.

REMARKS:

I have discussed with Paul Burke, DC/CI/ICG, Mexico's request for amendment of OA to use LICOOKY-1 against the Soviet official. We both are of the opinion that she can be used for development of the target to determine his susceptibility to recruitment, but that she should not be used to make the actual recruitment should the matter develop to that point, due to these considerations: (1) She is not a recruiter, never has made a recruitment. (2) Odds are she would be blown to the Soviets, since we must consider that the odds for successful recruitment of a Soviet official are not favorable. (3) Her relationship with LINLUCK in Mexico is fairly well known, so that there could be an unfavorable blow back on LINLUCK.

In authorizing her use in the developmental role, Burke would like for Station to be informed that it should tell LINLUCK that Station's continuing investigation of LICOOKY-1 discloses her association with Soviets; therefore, he should be very careful in his relationship with her.

SUBJECT: Operational/Progress Report for Project LIHLUCK for April and May, 1964

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

1. Forwarded herewith is a progress report for Project LIHLUCK for the period specified. This report was prepared by Leo C. HEDLICH, the outside case office.

2. LIHLUCK/1 has provided information for operational purposes on a number of subjects and/or individuals in which the Station has an interest or some sort of requirement from others (i.e., Mario Monteforte Toledo). Also, he sent a bundle of papers left by Major Alfonso Prera Sierra, one of Yon Sosa's followers, at the time of their Guatemala revolt effort in 1962. Lee E. MILECHEAIRE has gone through the papers and has had about 170 frames made. The negatives will be forwarded to Headquarters.

3. The affair between LIHLUCK/1 and LICOOKY/1 is, temporarily at least, suspended. Undoubtedly, the return of LIHLUCK/1's wife had a good deal to do with this plus the fact that pressure was being put on the two principals by the Station. Whether this separation can be maintained permanently is difficult to say, but LIHLUCK/1 has been put on notice that he is going to be subject to penalty if it isn't. Outside of that, LIHLUCK/1 has been quite responsive to any requirements imposed on him; on the other hand, he has not been reporting on his personal situation and contacts as fully as he should. This will shape up however.

1. On 29 May ODENVY asked KUDESK whether KUBARK had a current interest in LICOOKY as they had questions concerning Juan Jose AREVALO and Lyle STUART which they wanted passed to her. If we had no current contact they wanted to know whether we had any idea of her present whereabouts.

2. KUBARK orally told ODENVY that we formerly utilized her as a sub-source and we believed we could reestablish contact with her in order to pass to her the ODENVY questions. ODENVY was told that she was in Mexico.

3. ODENVY subsequently furnished the attached list of questions. It is requested that the Station pass this list to LICOOKY-1 and obtain from her, answers to be forwarded to Headquarters for passing to ODENVY. The Station is asked to comment on whether her testimony in court might be prejudicial to any KUBARK operations, or whether the Station can see no objection to such a court appearance.

RE: LYLE STUART

This Bureau currently is conducting an investigation in order to determine if the subject has violated the Registration Act. His firm published the 1964 American edition of the book entitled, "Anti-Communism in Latin America," written by Juan Jose Arevalo, former President of Guatemala. The nature and extent of subject's relationship with Arevalo is therefore pertinent to our investigation.

As you know, Viola June Cobb, known to your agency, personally knows Arevalo and worked with him on the translation of his book, "The Shark and the Sardine." It is therefore possible that Cobb may be in a position to furnish some information which can be of assistance to this Bureau. We would appreciate if your agency would interview Cobb and endeavor to obtain answers to the following:

(1) What information does she have concerning the relationship between the subject and Arevalo regarding the book, "Anti-Communism in Latin America"?

(2) Does she have any information indicating that subject is in any way affiliated with foreign political parties or governments?

(3) Does she know of any contractual agreement existing between subject and Arevalo or between subject and any other foreign principals?

(4) Does she know of anyone else who may be in a position to furnish information concerning subject?

(5) In the event that Cobb is in a position to furnish information concerning any of the above points, we desire to be informed if she would be willing to testify in court.

SUBJECT: LICOOKY-1/Comments on Meeting with Joel N. HIEBECKER on 26 February 1964

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

Action: None, for information only.

Attention: Joel N. HIEBECKER

1. Joel N. HIEBECKER, while in Mexico City during the week of 24 - 28 February 1964, met with LICOOKY-1, from 1500 to approximately 1600 hours on the afternoon of 26 February 1964, in connection with his review of the [illegible] operation. Upon leaving the meeting site HIEBECKER noted two unidentified young men who may have been conducting a surveillance of him. Later, at about 1630 hours, HIEBECKER saw LICOOKY-1 on Avenida Madero, about one mile from the meeting site. The case officer was requested to query LICOOKY-1 on any significant remarks LIELUCK-1, who lives with LICOOKY-1, might have made to LICOOKY-1 before and/or after the meeting with HIEBECKER, and to report same to Headquarters.

2. The next meeting with LICOOKY-1, as scheduled, was held on Friday afternoon, 28 February. LICOOKY-1 said that she did not see HIEBECKER on Avenida Madero on 26 February, and added that she did not have her glasses with her and without them cannot identify anyone more than 20 feet or so away. LIELUCK-1, she said, wanted to know with whom she spoke at noontime on 26 February (the meeting was arranged by the C/O via telephone and LIELUCK-1 answered the telephone), and later queried her regarding where she met and what had been said. He was satisfied, however, that she had been talking to a PBPRIMEr and did not press the matter further. She did not tell him where, or with whom, or what had been said. According to LICOOKY-1, LIELUCK-1 has no objections to her seeing and talking to PBPRIMErs, but he objects violently to her having anything to do with any non-PBPRIME leftists or Communists.

5. On 2 March 1964 LICOOKY-1 reported that she had decided to visit her brother in PEPRIME for two weeks or so, and will take advantage of the trip to renew her tourist documentation. She said that LIHUCK-1 has become extremely difficult to live with since HEIBECKER was here, and that she must get away from him for awhile. He objected to her leaving, but acquiesced when he became convinced that she intends to return to Mexico. LICOOKY-1 plans to leave on 4 March 1964, and will return on or about 20 March 1964.

1. LICOOKY-1 was granted an OA on 27 January 1964 for use as outlined in the PRQ II forwarded with HMMA-22258. The OA as granted, however, was restricted to approval to use LICOOKY-1 in such a manner that information is taken from her, but that as little classified information as possible is to be passed. Specific requirements should be passed only when necessary, and should be made in such a manner that sensitive operational or ODYOKE programs, plans, and objectives are not revealed. The office granting the OA also indicated that the limitations proposed in the Station's comments in Section XVI of the PRQ II should be implemented.

2. If LICOOKY-1 is ever to be used as a directed and fully controlled asset, without the limitations expressed above, an amendment to the OA will be necessary.

3. Reference is made to Section X, para 1 of the PRQ II forwarded in ref, which indicates that LICOOKY-1 may be given a bonus for a particularly outstanding job. The Station is reminded that since LICOOKY-1 is a Contract Agent, and PBPRIME citizen, her contract must be amended each time a bonus payment is contemplated.
